PTLS ADVISED

NARRATIVE Created 09/14/2022 16:01:01 ARMSTRONG, GARRETT H

Upon arrival I met with the complaint, Lee Coffey, who advised that he has had ongoing issues with his past landlord, Kevin Shaw. He stated that he attends the same class as Shaw's son, Miles Shaw, and that he was harassed by his father when the class was dismissed. He stated that he left his class and was walking to his car in the parking lot when he saw Miles Shaw on the phone. He stated that he believed Miles was on the phone with his father to get a ride and that he went into Building A to avoid a confrontation with the father. Coffey stated that he remained in Building A for approximately 10 minutes and then walked to his car. He stated that on his way to his car Kevin drove up to him and started to harass him. He stated that Kevin was yelling at him and was threatening to call the police over past landlord tenant issue. Coffey stated that at this time he started to record Kevin, Coffey showed me the recording where it showed Coffey telling Kevin to leave him alone and Kevin then driving away.

Coffee was informed of the process to file a complaint through the Newton Municipal Court. Coffey informed me that he did not wish for me to speak with Kevin Shaw in the fear something else could happen. He was advised if something were to happen again to call the station.
